“Already recognized as #6 in the nation for black student success by The Education Trust, USF is proud to announce our next step in building a vibrant and thriving community where all students are given a chance to succeed - the newly formed Black Leadership Network.”

Judy Genshaft
USF System President

MISSION

The Black Leadership Network (BLN) is a partnership-based group focused on engaging the community and enhancing the educational and leadership opportunities for African-American scholars within the USF System.

YOUR PARTNERSHIP WITH BLN

provides financial support for academic scholarships and enhances student success programs focused on personal and professional development. By joining BLN, you have the opportunity to network with like-minded people while building a supportive community for our students.
